Dr. Jean-Luc Moens

March 27th, 2021

Our dear brother Jean-Luc,
Greetings in Christ!

It is difficult to express enough our surprise of the news of your resignation as Moderator of the CHARIS International Service of Communion. We do, however, totally understand and fully support your decision which we know is for the best of your family, trusting and knowing that in all things the Lord works for the good of those he loves (Rom. 8:28). We are encouraged by the particular attention that was expressed to you by the Holy Father.

We want to take this opportunity to honor you for the way you have served us and indeed the whole Catholic Charismatic Renewal. One of the first thoughts is that you are a man of courage, both in accepting to be moderator and by deciding, after a time of prayer and discernment, to resign. Both acts are not simply expressions of courage but also examples of true Christlike servanthood that we believe we all need to learn from.

You have also touched our hearts by your humility, always available and open to listen to each and every one of us and taking at heart everything we said despite the diversity and many backgrounds we come from. You have also been to us an example of living a holy life, a sacrificial life, living away from your family even when they needed you most, making the time of the Covid confinement at the hospital a spiritual retreat, and always being a man of prayer.

We are also grateful, on behalf of the whole Charismatic world, for the great achievements you made in such a short time. Perhaps, the best way to describe them is by saying that you were able to bring an unprecedented level of unity among and across all expressions of the Charismatic Renewal. This is not a small thing! We can only promise one thing: we will not let all the work you have done go to waste. We also know that we can continue to count on your support and more importantly on your prayers.

We love you and we will continue to pray for God's blessings on you and on your family.
